

Arcadia Now

Contemporary Art In Country

curated by Tom McGlynn

current venue:

New Jersey City University

Visual Art Gallery

http://www.njcu.edu/Visual\_Arts\_Gallery.aspx

Sept 10-Oct 25, 2012

Artist Talk - Saturday Oct 13, 2012

original venue:

Christine Price Gallery

Castleton State College

Castleton, Vermont, 05735

April 11- May 15, 2011

Opening Reception with Artist Talk - Wednesday, April 13, 4:30-6:30

Gallery Hours Monday-Friday 9am-5pm

"Arcadia Now" invokes the idea of the pastoral past, and combines art in an ensemble vision of what that pastoral idea, or an idyllic place of remove, might look like in the present. Combining photography, painting, sculpture and video, the exhibition addresses issues of nature and human consequence on nature, beauty and banality, and the ideal and the real in both abstract and figurative terms. How do we "see" the country?

The artists participating in the show include:

Sally Apfelbaum

Andrew Castrucci

Tim Daly

Alisa Dworsky

Bill Doherty

Ken Ikeda

Justine Kurland

Nathaniel Lieb

Mary McDonnell

Rebecca Purdum

Kiki Smith

Fredrik Strid

Scott Walden

Tenesh Webber

James Welling

Aaron Williams

For more information contact: Tom McGlynn (802) 468-6047 or William Ramage (802) 468-1266